Don't miss this once-in-a-lifetime occasion!

This is a unique opportunity to impress the Florida school counselors with your support of their very first convention. The FSCA has made the commitment to meet the demands of this large constituency by matching the U.S. trend to hold a distinguished event dedicated to the goals of school counselors. This extraordinarily important occasion is your chance to demonstrate your own commitment to the community.

The Most Focused Program in School Counseling

The 2008 FSCA Convention program will be delivered by thought leaders from Florida and throughout the United States. The hottest and most relevant topics will be explored by leading industry advocates, state officials, counselor educators and, most importantly, professional school counselors!

500 school counselors expected to attend!
